Tuesday 8th January

Howard Keel Jane Powell

in

“Seven Brides for Seven Brothers.”

Rollicking musical perfectly integrates song, dance and story. Keel’s decision to get himself a wife inspires his rowdy brothers to follow suit. Oscar winner for musical direction. 1954

“This is a happy, hand-clapping, foot-stomping country type of musical with all the slickness of a Broadway show.” Variety

Tuesday 22nd January.

Rob Brydon Rupert Graves

“Swimming with Men.”

Faced with a full-blown mid-life crisis, accountant Eric (Rob Brydon) joins an all-male group of synchronised swimmers, discovering that making patterns in a pool can, for a couple of hours at least, smooth out the bumps in his work and marriage. Initially keeping their personal lives in the locker, the ramshackle squad and coach Susan slowly learn to reveal their inner lives, as well as their paunches. But can they get their lives and routines in sync as they embark on an unlikely journey to Milan to compete in the World Championship? 2018

Tuesday 5th February.

Elizabeth Taylor Laurence Harvey

in

“Night Watch.”

Elizabeth Taylor plays a lonely insomniac trapped in a loveless marriage and by an obsession with a creepy gothic house next door. One night while indulging in her alcohol fueled ramblings, she sees a body inside the empty house, a body that resembles her deceased, first husband.1973

“A terrific, suspenseful thriller with one hell of a twist ending.” IMDB

“Wonder.”

Based on the New York Times bestseller, WONDER tells the inspiring and heart-warming story of August Pullman. Born with facial differences that, up until now, have prevented him from going to a mainstream school, Auggie becomes the most unlikely of heroes when he enters the local fifth grade. As his family, his new classmates, and the larger community all struggle to discover their compassion and acceptance, Auggie's extraordinary journey will unite them all and prove you can't blend in when you were born to stand out. 2018

Tuesday 5th March.

Montgomery Clift Anne Baxter
